

Ronald Summerville

May 30, 1949 - March 12, 2022

We celebrate the life of RONALD TYRONE SUMMERVILLE, who gained his wings. He departed this earthly life on March 12, 2022 after a short illness.

Ronald was born on May 30, 1949 to the late June H. Spratley and the late George Summerville. He was educated in Baltimore public schools where he proudly showed off his athletic skills. Like his mother, he loved fashion; but it was his gift to sing that allowed him great opportunities through the years. Ronnie was a lead singer with various groups opening for various celebrity groups in and out of Baltimore.

Ronald was employed through Baltimore Recreation and Parks and various high-end clothing and shoe stores. He was a father, son, brother, grandfather, great-grandfather as well as a friend to many; and will be missed by plenty.

Preceding him in death are: five siblings, Don Jose, Troy, Charles, Vonda and Jackie; son, Corey; and grandson, Courtney.

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Cenna Summerville; sons, Ronald Jr., Timothy and Sergio Summerville; his one and only daughter, Dania "Pebbles" King (son-in-law, Kevin King Sr.); three brothers, Zachary Grandy Sr., Clifton Hopkins and Billy Spratley Jr.; two sisters, Bridget Hopkins and Posie Spratley; sister-in-law, Lynnette Hopkins; ten grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including best friends Billy Harden and Willie Whitney, who were all special to him.
