

Rosemary D. King-Owens

October 9, 1961 - September 26, 2020

Rosemary D. King-Owens was born on October 9, 1961 to the late Frances King and Ross King, Sr. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life on September 26, 2020.

She received her education in the Baltimore City School System.

Rosemary had several jobs but she really enjoyed working with her family at the family convenience store. If you knew Rosemary the “BBQ Sauce Queen”, she was blunt, very outspoken, bound to say anything out of her mouth. She was genuine and original, she was the one you went to when you needed raw and unfiltered advice because she said what everybody was afraid to say. We had to beg her to be good. She loved her family time—from softball to even getting revenge on her nieces and nephews with flour, eggs and water, they had so much fun. But most of all she loved to play cards. Rosemary loved the Dollar Store and roses. She loved perfume and lotions, one of her great-nieces would always find her way to her house and confiscate some of her lotions and perfume. We ate so much BBQ sauce at her house that one year we gave her a BBQ birthday and she loved it.

Rosemary was preceded in death by her parents, Frances King and Ross King, Sr.; sons, Barry R. Montgomery, Sr. and Scott King; and sisters, Roslyn Batty, Rose M. King and Theresa King.

Rosemary leaves to mourn: her husband, Kenneth Owens; grandson, Barry R. Montgomery, Jr.; granddaughter, Celestine A. King; sister, Eileen Martin; two brothers, Ross and Rodney King; best friend, Yvonne Lockett; and a host of other relatives and friends.
