

Ruth Adams

March 1, 1938 - October 17, 2021

RUTH ADAMS, daughter of the late Alice and Richard Clark, was born on March 1, 1938 in Henderson, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 17, 2021 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at St. Francis Catholic School in Baltimore. She also graduated from the Baltimore School of Cosmetology.

Ruth married the late Phillip Adams. They had two daughters, Angela MacMurray and the late Doris Adams.

Ruth loved her family and enjoyed socializing with friends. She had a passion for home decorating and fashion. She enjoyed small home improvement projects such as painting, refinishing wood floors, texturizing walls, and other projects. Ruth enjoyed cooking holiday meals for her family. She loved to admire the trees while riding up and down the highway. She also loved plants and flowers.

Ruth was employed by Procter and Gamble until she became ill. Ruth will be missed by her family and friends. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Angela MacMurray; one grandson, Damon Harris; three great-granddaughters, Jazzmin Moore, Emani Harris, and DeLynn Harris and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest condolences to Sis Adams' daughter and family. I attended First Charity Baptist Church with Sis. Adam's for many years. She was a joy to worship and fellowship with. She always had a sweet word and warm smile to share after service. Our fellowship will not be the same without her. Even when she wasn't in the best of health, she attended church faithfully with the help of her daughter. May God continue to bless her family.
