

Sharon Turner

April 4, 1955 - July 31, 2021

Sharon Arlette Turner was born to this world, April 4 1955 to Osborne and Madeline Turner. The youngest of three, she was educated in the Baltimore City School System, graduating Eastern High School in 1973. Sharon loved people, especially kids. She loved to read, listened to all types of music, watched all types of movies, and continuously studied the Word of God. She re-dedicated her life to Christ in 1996 under the leadership of Pastor Haywood Robinson.

Sharon worked a few jobs before entering the U.S. Navy in 1979, where she specialized in telecommunications. She also married, and of that union came a very special daughter, Kristin Simone Mincey. Shortly after that delivery, Sharon suffered a debilitating stroke, but Sharon refused to be denied by a disability of such magnitude. Simone was the star in her eyes. Sharon vigorously fought back to give Simone as well rounded an upbringing as possible in spite of her limitations.

Sharon's favorite missions were not only the children, but she felt passionately for the homeless, always trying to give and do for them in some small way. Sharon most always had a smile and a light-hearted attitude. She always tried her best, to be the best, and to do the right things to be the person God wanted her to be.

She also leaves to mourn one daughter, Kristin Simone Mincey; one sister Stephanie Diane Jones; one brother David Frederick Turner; one aunt, Mildred Reynolds, many cousins, nephews, nieces, and a host of other family and friends.
