

Shirley Harrison Wallace

August 14, 1938 - June 11, 2020

On June 11, 2020, Shirley Wallace, a mother, grandmother, aunt, sister and friend was called home to be with her heavenly father. She was the daughter of the late Clarence and Annie Harrison born on August 14, 1938 in Enfield, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her former husband, Dr. Yahya Warith f/k/a Johnnie Wallace; devoted friends, Mr. Guy Trent, Geraldine Dewitt and Esther Wallace.

Mother Shirley received her education from Maggie L. Walker High School and she attended Sharon Baptist Church for over 60 years. Shirley was employed at Nabisco for 20 years where she retired. Shirley enjoyed spending time with family and friends. For many years she enjoyed hanging out with her daughters and cousin Lucy, going to clubs, football games, and having cookouts in her backyard. The thing Shirley loved the most was working in her yard with all the decorations for every holiday all year round.

Mother Shirley leaves to cherish her precious memories her four daughters, Diane Wallace, Hazella Thornhill-King (Charles), Sylvia Small and Pamela Adams (Walter); grandchildren, Sidney Wallace, Apollonia Poole (Danzell), Tiffany Wallace, Robert Small, IV (LaTora) and Walter Adams, III; Thirteen Great Grandchildren; Shirley's sisters, Doretha H. Whitehead (Percy); Shirley's brothers, James Burroughs (Dorothy) and Raymond Smith, Jr.; a host of other relatives and friends among them devoted, Lucy Baker, De'Jonne Cheatham, Mary Jefferson, Betty Nesmith, Sonny Rogers and Earlene Artis.

A special thanks to the best caregivers we could have asked for, her baby girl Pamela Adams with the unselfish support of her husband, Walter Adams and the staff of Beacon Place, 2502 Summit Avenue, Greensboro, North Carolina 27405

“ THELMA BLACKWELL AN FAMILY

THELMA BLACKWELL - June 18 at 02:46 PM

“ Mother Shirley Wallace was a mother figure to so many. I recall the wonderful conversations I had with her at the Nabisco Plant in Richmond on line 3. She shared a lot of wisdom with me and she always had a word of encouragement for me while I was in Grad-School. After moving to Michigan she came to visit me and that will always be one of the highlights of my life in Michigan. May her memory always be cherish. Prayers of comfort to her family and many friends. I thank God that He allowed our paths to cross. RIP Mother Shirley Wallace.

“ To the Wallace family
Shirley will be missed by all who knew her, cause to know her it was to love her, I have lots of fun memories of her from when I was little to now. You gave her a very special and blessed homegoing. Know that the family is here for you all. Look the tears will slow down, peace will come and put a smile on your face. Then you will know that you are still being looked after by the Lord. May the Lord favor bring many blessing to each of you.
Love your cousin

“ The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops, and yet it echoes
on in sweet refrains...
For every joy that passes,
something beautiful remains.
