“ I knew Shri for almost 20 years and have wonderful memories of the time spent with him and his family. He was always very very friendly, jolly and hospitable. He truly enjoyed his life despite some health issues. Just a month ago he told me that he is the happiest man on this earth and he even sent some pictures of himself showing how much he loved life. It was a shocking news to find out that the is not amongst us anymore. May GOD he is RIP and give strength to Dear Sheela and Shail. Shri, you will be truly missed.

“ Shri was always a positive and warm person. A kind and gentle person who dispensed wisdom with a touch of humor. He was knowledgeable on so many different things and he cared for people deeply while always keeping things light.

He was a good human being who was helpful and playful. He was a dependable friend, and a loving father and partner. Hope the memories he leaves behind will provide comfort and support to Shail and Sheela during these tough times.

Our deepest condolences.

“ I met Shri Uncle about 20 years ago when Shail and I became friends.

Uncle was always cheerful, funny, and had the ability to make friends with anyone he was around.

In our circle of friends, we often considered him the 'favorite Uncle' because he was able to relate to us and make us laugh. We were comfortable around him because he was like 'one of the boys.'

Even in Uncle's most difficult times, I don't ever remember him complaining or being sad about his health problems. I remember nothing but smiles on his face and jokes from his voice. This is an example that I think we should all follow.

Shri Uncle - you will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by myself and countless others.

Shail/Sheely Aunty - I pray that you both remain strong throughout this immensely difficult time.

“ Dear Sheela,

Shri was one of his kind, willing to give and share unstintingly. His smile was his greatest gift. I will hold that image dear and smile in turn when I visit it in my memory.

“ From the time he allowed himself to be interviewed as a suitable match for Sheela, I have had the privilege of being Shri's friend and admirer of his capacity to enjoy life and spread happiness no matter what the personal odds - he faced in recent years. His family and ours too will miss him sorely. We all have great memories of times we met and continued to interact. Shri didn't believe in grief or at least it didn't show in his demeanor anytime! We must all try to emulate his positivity and cheerfulness.

Shashi joins me in extending heartfelt condolences to Sheela, Shail and family.

“ We have some great memories of Shri, especially his jovial nature and constant jokes. He was a very optimistic person and his presence always brought joy and cheer. We had known him for over 20 years and he will be sorely missed....with our heart felt condolences.....Dilip and Madhu “ Shribhai, as we used to call him, was the most jovial person at any party. One would always hear laughter around him.

He had an unique sense of humor. He was a simple hearted and transparent man. He spoke what he thought. He was a friend one could always trust and rely on. We are mourning the loss of a gentleman who was a very dear friend, a loving husband and a fun dad.
Family meant everything to him. He was strong willed. He never allowed his physical challenges get him down. He continued to laugh through it all.
We miss him terribly.
May God give his atma eternal peace and strength to Sheela and Sheil to bear the loss. With deepest condolences, Deepti and Prafull Dave
