“ To the family of our beloved friend and sister, Stanislaus Mahogany (Pinky) Jones, my deepest and heartfelt sympathy. From the time I met Pinky, she took each of my kids, Harry, Adrienne and Danielle) under her wings. She loved them as if they were her own. As they grew up, she did the same for their kids. Pinky was truly a blessing to everyone who knew her. She will be greatly missed.

“ To the family of Apostle Stanislaus Jones that we also affectionately called her "Pinky Ann". The Holmes and Williams family extend our love and prayers to the family. We all have so many fond memories of "Pinky" growing up on Tuxedo Blvd as well as her mentorship in ministry. She was was a friend, mentor and spiritual mother. Apostle Jones steadfastly demonstrated what it meant to simply "trust and obey" God.

We are truly thankful for the example of this life lived for the glory of God. To think of her at Home with Christ makes the thought of heaven all the richer and sweeter. May God's grace cover your family and give you peace. You are in our thoughts and heart!

“ We went to say "see you later" to Aunt Stan yesterday. She was indeed a bold soldier for the Lord. While I was saddened to hear of her passing, nevertheless, as a believer I was comforted in knowing that I would see her again.

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. II
Corinthians 5:1

Family, take comfort in knowing that if you believe as she believed, then you will see her again.

“ To the family of Stanislaus M. Jones, you have my prayers and my condolences. I met and knew Stan when we were both a part of SisterCare, International. I have great memories associated with those times as we worshiped, ministered and traveled together during our season as Sistahs. I remember being blessed by Exousia and their unparalleled style of worship. I remember the loving-care that Stan gave to her mom, as she dressed her mom in St. Johns suits. I did lose contact with Stan over the years, but I never lost the love and affection and friendship that I had for her. I grieve with you that this life has ended for Stan, but I rejoice with you that her new life has begun.

“ To the family of Ms Jones; my heartfelt sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I remember two sisters and two nieces by name; and want to share my fondest memory.
of my friend..
I knew Pinkie during our early teen years(the 1960's). She formed our first singing group,
I was a member with two other girls. Pinkie did everything for the group; choreography, find management, bookings and costumes. Her mother Miss Pinky sewed our outfits, did a great job. We looked good and sound good, that was fun and cool; I'll never forget. Pinkie was a hard worker(she kept multiple jobs), go getter(she got the job done),generous and caring person. As a teenager I admired how she cared for her mother through all of her years . Always being busy she was hard to catch up with. I left town in the 70's and lost touch with her. She did attend my wedding in RVA(in the 80's) and served as a gracious hostess; she saw and remembered my kids(in the 90's). She made me aware of her work in the ministry; but never sent me a tape... If there are any recordings of her message please let me know. I have no doubt that all those good qualities she demonstrated as a teen served her well in her mature years. The last time I saw her was at her mother's homegoing service. I know she was a good and faithful servant and I say well done. TO GOD BE THE GLORY . rest in peace; my friend.

“ I want to honor and celebrate the life of my dear friend and spiritual leader, Apostle Mahogany with some great memories and snapshots the past 2 years. What a loving and powerful woman of God and friend she was to me and so many others! I love how she looked forward to Jesus saying to her, “Well done, my good and Faithful One! Enter into my rest!” She taught us the Kingdom of God at Kingdom Institute of Lancaster, and we will remember her by carrying on her legacy of love, going the distance no matter the obstacles (driving from VA or MD to Lancaster, PA) and always sharing amazing food! She often cooked and enjoyed fellowship with us as Jesus did with His disciples (Koininia). This Daughter of God knew her Royalty with our King of Kings! She taught us to believe God, pray powerfully on all occasions, regardless of the hour, even into all hours of the night! She always said, “Everything’s gonna be alright.” I believe her and may God allow her amazing legacy to live on in those who received the word of God from her. We were blessed to know her. She gave her all and she loved Jesus! 🙏🏻”

“ To my dearest God mother whom affectionately still referred to as Pinky. I can imagine that the Lord was waiting for you with open arms with your mother stand at his side. I loved to hear you sing when I was a little girl running around church. You used to give the best hugs! I'm sure some of your outspokenness rubbed off on me. It was a blessing to have known you. Job well done my good and faithful servant.

“ Rev. Dr. Verlean Hailey Gould, Visionary Founder of MySisterCare, to which Stanislaus M. Jones co-labored with us for many years as a teacher, a prophetic leader, and compassionate Sistah. She was a personal friend of mine that I met at the Rejoice Radio station back in the early 90s, we became fast friends and she supported me spiritually, physically, emotionally, and financially. She was amazing at coming up with paid work for me to do so I could keep the doors of the ministry offices open. We traveled to Port Huron, Michigan together in a huge group to celebrate with Mother Veter Nichols, it was life-changing for us. She brought International Speakers to Richmond from all over the world, such as Bishop Tudor Bismarck. Stan was a workaholic in her practice and in her ministry, however, I never heard her complain one minute about the reward of either. She had a Zeal like no other I have known for the Kingdom of God to be advanced. She spared no expense in funding Kingdom work and she provoked you to do the same. Her legacy will be profound as She took no prisoners in her service unto the Lord, whether she was singing, preaching, praying, investing, and believing. I am still numb but also delighted to give tribute to her life and encouragement to those of us She left behind ... for a little while. Stan gave God....Total Praise!

“ I met Pinky Jones when we were 14 years old and she was rehearsing with an all-girl R&B singing group. She loved to sing gospel music. We had many laughs over the years. Whenever I came home to Richmond from Seattle I was sure to get in touch with her to reminisce. I remember asking her why she changed her name to Stanislaus and she told me " no men were taking her seriously in the legal printing business with the name Pinky". She was a paralegal, an entrepreneur and a businesswoman. I will miss my friend. Rest in Heavenly peace Pinky Jones. Harry (Nick) Smith Seattle, WA

“ To the Jones family my deepest condolences and prayers of peace and comfort toward you all. There are no words to express the impact that Stan (as our relationship was expressed) had on my life. She modeled excellence like no one I have ever seen. She showed me how to labor in the word. I remember spending hours with her, pen, and pad in hand as we view teaching after teaching. She shared the laughter that was good for the soul, we shared our love for music as we were in a singing group together, and most of all we share the love of Christ as she ministered his life wherever she was. She will be missed for now but celebrated in her promised place with the Lord. See you when I get there my friend..save a lobster tail for me!!

“ We are heart broken of the tremendous loss of our Apostle, Mother, Godmother and Friend! We are so thankful and grateful for her life. Her impact was life changing and will be felt for generations to come. Her sincere passion for the Kingdom was contagious. Apostle Stan loved words and was a thought provoking, revelatory teacher. Her prophetic oratory was a result of her deep commitment to YWH and his word. She believed in doing things right and poured her soul into everything she touched. Her presence was undeniable. She was in a class of her own. We miss her, but we take comfort in knowing that she is with the Father and at rest. Our love and prayers are with Elder Bettie Johnson and the entire Jones Family.
With love and sympathy!
