

Thomas H. Young Sr.

June 27, 1951 - August 6, 2020

Thomas Henry Young, Sr. was born on June 27, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland to Elsie Mae Young and John Austin Young, Sr. Thomas turned his life over to God and accepted Christ. He was baptized on New Year's Eve, at Good Shepard Baptist Church under The Late Robert C Hunt. Tommy attended Forest Park Senior High and received his degree from Essex Community College. He was known for his lovingness, kindness and humility. He exuded these characteristics through all endeavors which he pursued. In his teenage years, Tommy was a wonderful big brother to his sisters and baby brother. Weekend movies at the Met on Penn were hallmarks of fun times. Tommy was protective of his sisters. He was so very "street smart" and could spot villains a mile away. In his own words, he was "Pretty Fair, for a Square." In other words, "he was the coolest, smoothest, all the while...being the most down to earth Brother around."

At age 18 he married the Late Inez Kidwell Cradle in 1972. Out of their union, Thomas Henry Young, Jr. was born. "Little Tommy" was adored by his father and they experienced a deep love and closeness. Tommy Jr enjoyed conversing with his Dad, often picking his mind about sports, current topics, politics and family history. Tommy Jr gave him four beautiful grandchildren and a beautiful daughter in law that loved "Pops" and made him proud.

In 2005, Tom married the love of his life, Jackie Lancaster. His love for his wife was undeniable. Tommy became a brother to his wife's siblings, and he shared a unique bond with each member of her family. When Tom inherited the role of Young Family patriarch, Jackie remained by his side as the couple became inseparable and revered by all as "Tommy and Jackie".

What would the Preakness, Kentucky Derby or the Belmont Stakes be without Tom's engagement? He absolutely LOVED all things horses, and it was not limited to just playing the bets. Tom used his astuteness to gather data and access the betting odds for "favorites and long-shots" in horseracing. As Tom encountered and overcame incredible obstacles, he never allowed them to steal away the best of him. He continued to celebrate his life with generous gifts, deeds and favors. He refused to abandon responsibility and accepted his "Godfather" position in the family.

His eternal place beside the Lord is sealed through his salvation. His faith and works are rewarded, and he is now in heaven with his Mother and loved ones gone before.

The memory of Tommy will always be carried in the hearts of his loving wife, Jackie Young; his son, Thomas Young Jr. (Stephanie); his grandchildren, Tikerrah, Torie, Justin and Jordan; his siblings, Carolyn, John and Larry (who preceded him on to glory), Ellen (Phillip), Sharon, Rhonda, Chloe, Theresa, Michael (Janet); dear friends, Chaz, Connie, Guye, Sobee, Biddie and Linda and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.

“ I will miss you being among us. I'm remembering the days years ago when we were young children. Y'all in Westport and us in Cherry Hill, how we went back and forth to the recreation dances. REST IN PEACE my cousin. So long for now!
