

Valarie D. Jefferson

January 9, 1953 - February 16, 2021

VALARIE DORENE JEFFERSON was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 9, 1953. She departed this life on February 16, 2021. Valarie was preceded in death by her parents Magdalene Millbourne Kidd and Thomas Randolph. Valarie was a devoted member of Browns Memorial Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. R. Lee Johnson. She was an active member of the Voices Choir until her health prevented her from participating. Valarie received her high school education at Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She later went on to receive her Associates Degree in Accounting from Baltimore City Community College. She became a supervisor for Baltimore Fuel Systems. While there she built long lasting bonds with everyone she encountered, just like at home she become a mother figure and inspiration to everyone who knew her. After 33 years with the City of Baltimore, Valarie retired in 2013. Valarie enjoyed taking family vacations and spending time with her family but what she enjoyed the most was being a grandmother to all her grandchildren. Valarie was very outspoken and would let you know her thoughts on any situation regardless of who was involved. She was a loving and loyal friend and always tried her best to help anyone that she could. To know her was to love her and anyone can attest to that. Valarie was a mother, grandmother and sister to whom she loved with every fiber in her being. Valarie was an exceptional cook, who would cook for any and everyone who came through her door. Sunday and holiday dinners were especially her favorite times to prepare meals because everyone would be there to enjoy her food and spend time together as a family. There aren't enough words to express how much she was loved and will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have met and known her. Valarie leaves behind a loving and caring family who she knows that she has raised to be trusting, loving and caring for one another. She left Earth and has risen to Heaven knowing that her family will remain strong and together and not wither during hard times. Valarie always treasured her bond with her sister Tammara Williams. From birth these two have been inseparable. From living with each other and raising their children together with the same morals and values that they both were instilled with growing up as young women. Although she is gone, the bond that they shared is truly unbreakable. Valarie leaves here to mourn: children, Angel, Andrea, Kendra, Devin; adopted daughters, Nicole and Asia; one son-in-law, Antonio; one sister, Tammara; eleven grandchildren, Justin, Chaelyn, Camryn, Damien, Daequan, Dayvion, Amiyah, Jerell, Jamerra, Jawuan, London; ten great-grandchildren, Ayden, Marley, Love, Demi, Ayvn, Ashton, Noah, Brequan, D'annie, Ariyon; one nephew, Kevin; three nieces, Shemaine, Sherice, Sherrell; two great-nieces, Tamea, Timecka; one great-nephew, Tony. She also leaves very dear friends Drusilla, Mary and Agnes; a host of other relatives and friends

“ Ms. Valerie Jefferson emulated "the beauty of a woman"

The beauty of a woman Is not in the clothes she wears,
The figure that she carries, Or the way she combs her hair.

The beauty of a woman must be seen from in her eyes,
Because that is the doorway to her heart, the place where love resides.

The beauty of a woman is not in a facial mole,
But true beauty in a woman Is reflected in her soul.

It is the caring that she lovingly gives,
The passion that she shows,
And the beauty of a woman
With passing years only grows.
