

Mr. Vernon B. Carter

January 13, 1949 - May 29, 2019

VERNON B. CARTER, son of the late Leonard and Janet Carter was born on January 13, 1949. He entered into eternal rest on May 29, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

Vernon , affectionately known as 'Pop', completed his education at City College in 1967. On November 16, 1967 he enlisted in the United States Air Force.

Vernon met and married the former Brenda Dorsey on August 15, 1978. They were a sincerely devoted couple for over forty years.

Pop held numerous State jobs as a Correctional Officer, Youth Supervisor and Social Worker for the Department of Social Services. His most prestigious position was being called Uncle Pop to his many nieces and nephews.

A native East Baltimorean, Vernon attended St. Ann's Catholic Church. He loved everyone he came in contact with because he truly loved the Lord.

Pop made friends wherever he went and was always willing to do anything for anyone at any time. He certainly was a devoted family man. Vernon had love for jazz music, traveling, sports and watching Westerns.

Preceding him in death are his five brothers, Leonard, Sidney, Pete, Herc and Howard Carter.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his loving and devoted wife, Brenda Carter; three sisters, Thelma Crawford, Diane Carter and Pamela Carter; mother-in-law, Joan Kuniken; four sisters -in-law, five brothers -in-law, and a host nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.
