Wanda was born on November 29, 1965, 1965 in Baltimore, MD to the late Arthur Lee and Corrine Jenkins. Wanda was born on November 29, 1965, 1965 in Baltimore, MD to the late Arthur Lee and Corrine Jenkins.

Wanda was educated through the Baltimore Public city School System.

She had a kind and nurturing heart and from an early age could be found caring for many of the children in the neighborhood. She shared a loving and tender relationship with her mother and took care of her until her passing with Wanda at her side. As an adult, Wanda was a homemaker and caregiver, She raised two sons and played an active role in helping to raise her grandchildren. She would do almost anything that helped make their lives easier . Wanda 's compassion and generous spirit showed as she helped many people with everyday tasks, such as cleaning and shopping. Wanda's favorite color was purple known as Royalty. She loved the sound of the birds and to watch them fly. Wanda was preceded in death by her father, Arthur Lee Jenkins and her mother, Corrine Jenkins. Left to celebrate her memory are two sons: Bohrer Harris and Elwin Willis; two grandsons: Kie'rynn and Aubrey Harris; two sisters: Karen Robinson and Farris; a brother ; Kevin Cofield; and a host of nieces, nephews, family member and friends
