“ To the Kelly and Allen Family - The Lucombe family extend their heartfelt sympathy on the passing of little Aaliyah. As you all take this journey we all must take know that God promises He will never leave you or forsake you. He promises to comfort you. Call on Him when it gets overwhelming and know and be assured He hears and will answer. I pray that you all will remember Aaliyah's smiles and one day it will bring a smile to your face. Be Blessed

“ Lavette, you may not remember me but I surely remember you. We were friends in elementary school. I was looking for someone else when I came across Aaliyah's precious picture. I am so sorry to hear about the lost of your sweet angel. Just know she is in the arms of the Lord & her love & memory will never leave you. May God bless you & your family.
