I must say I'm totally lost for words cousin. Received that call from auntie and instantly broke into tears when she said "your cousin Aaron/man man is....". Last memory I'm left with is the long conversation we had back in August, haven't had one of those with you since we been grown, and I'm going to forever hold and embrace that memory. Glad you made sure me and your Little cousin got to for a relationship with the babies before you left here. I love you cousin, and forever in my heart.

Oh!! Erin words can never explain the pain I felt the day I received the news of your death. I loved you when you was here and I will love you until I die. You always showed me love whenever I was in your company. The family won't be the same with you gone.
