“ I'm sorry for your loss. There's nothing worse than losing a young son who didn't even make it to teenage years. He's resting with God now. He is always there for you. Maybe not physically but in your hearts, dreams, and spirit.##imported-begin##Dionna Christian##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, especially one so young. Be assured that soon this sorrow will cease to exist. The Bible tells us that soon," ... the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29) and that, "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " (Rev 21:3,4) If you "draw close to God he will draw close to you," (James 4:8) and will become your source of comfort. Please allow yourself to do just this through a study of God's word the Bible and truly learn how God will fulfill the hope he gave to all of us at Acts 24:15, the hope of a resurrection. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##G Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Kings 17:17-24 reports on the death and resurrection of a woman's young son. May you receive much strength from this account which helps us to see that God will bring many back to life in the Paradise earth. Also, may you draw closer to Jehovah God and his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18, John 3:16)###imported-begin##SharonHill###imported-end##

“ To: Asheli and the Black family Aaron's great-grandmother Deaconess Queen Esther Black used to give me a lot of wisdom when I was a little boy at Parrish Hill Baptist Church. I believe she would offer a Bible verse of faith if she was her today, something like, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."- Matthew 5:4 (New International Version) The two boys are with God now. That is enough to inspire you to go on and keep the faith! Walter C. Robinson, Jr. Henrico, VA###imported-begin##Walter C. Robinson, Jr.###imported-end##
