

Aaron V. Moore

February 13, 1993 - September 3, 2016

Aaron Vaughn Moore was born on February 1, 1993 in Baltimore, Maryland to Veronica Moore and Pierre Foster. On September 3, 2016, God called him home to his final resting place.

Aaron was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system, graduating from Edmondson Westside High School; in June 2011. During his time at Edmondson, Aaron was a constant player on the Varsity football team from the day he arrived. Playing the position of Strong Safety, Aaron was considered an impact player with Division 1 talent. And because of his love for the game, it was Aaron's dream to become a Physical Therapist for athletes.

Affectionately known to others as 40, to know him was to love him. His spirit radiated through his infectious smile and his generous actions. He was always willing to lend a helping hand no matter who you were. Aaron always carried himself in a respectful manner, so much so that he stood out from the rest. His personality, his goofy laugh and his looks made others do a double take.

Aaron formed special bonds wherever he went, starting with his Old York/Willow (OYW) friends and the 5 amigos from high school (too numerous to name). He made each person he came in contact with feel special.

Aaron will fondly be remembered by his handsomeness, his "waves", his "permanent gold tooth", being a Pittsburgh Steelers' fan and his favorite saying, "I love you more".

Preceding him in death are : his uncle, Michael; his aunt, Joanne; and close friends, Bobby (#Ripbobby). Frank (#Flyhighfrank), and Trae (#Longlivetrae).

Aaon leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Zion; mother, Veronica; father, Pierre Sr. (Stacey); two brothers: Kelton and Pierre Jr.; two sisters; Jasmine and Jada; grandparents: Willie and Florence (maternal) and Betty (paternal); uncles: Antonio Sr., Samuel, Donta and Octavius; aunts; Donna, Pam, and Debbie; niece, Taylor; nephew, Kelton Jr.; godmother, Dana; girlfriend, Jasmine; cousins but more like sisters and brothers, Mike, Stacey, Maurtese, Danielle and Shawn; a host of other close relatives and special friends.
