

Abeo D. Braswell-Simmons

March 16, 1982 - February 1, 2015

Abeo Dominique Braswell- Wilhelmena Braswell-Simmons, daughter of Joe and Wilhelmena Braswell was born on March 16, 1982, at GBMC in Baltimore Maryland . She departed this life after an extended illness on February 1st 2015, the beginning of Black History Month.

"A Time to Live and Love"

Abeo, a beautiful person with a jovial personality graduated from the Lawrence Piquing School for pregnant girls. Her graduation speaker was the Rev. Jamal Bryant. She listened to his words and for Black History Month won 3rd place in a speech contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha in Baltimore City. Abeo always had an overwhelming personality and was very entertaining. Abeo a very funny person had jokes and enjoyed telling them. She wore a bright smile that lit her face; it was through her bright eyed smile that we shared much love and happiness. She was a proud mother and loved her sons Ade Braswell and D'juan Price immensely. To Abeo life was precious and she enjoyed it and lived it to the fullest.

"A Time to Mourn"

During the late hours of Sunday February 1, 2015, Abeo took her last ride exchanging time for eternity and entering into eternal peace. She leaves to cherish fond memories her husband William Simmons; her comforting parents Joe and Wilhelmena Braswell; two extraordinary sons Ade Braswell and D'juan Price; a thoughtful sister Akia Braswell and a close, dedicated brother Aseem Braswell; three nephews Akil jr., Saeed and Cyrus Braswell and one niece Sade Kai-Lewis; her grandparents William and Mary Braswell; also a host of other relatives and friends.

Abeo enjoyed all her aunts and uncles especially when there was a party. Her two favorite great aunts Jessie Jones and Addie Pinkard would always have a July 4th party. Abeo would always crash it. She ate, told jokes, having everyone laugh and taking food with her, while disappearing into thin air until next year at the same time.

Next year July 4th she'll probably crash the party again being the center of everyone's conversation!

“ I remember laughing and sharing good times while at Mt. Royal. I will never forget the time we walked home from downtown, two lost people, but we found our way back to your house and laughed the whole way. Its been years and not a day that goes by that I never thought about those days. I would have loved to see you before the news of your passing , just to laugh with you one more time. You will truly be missed!!!
