

Abraham Harry Sampson

June 30, 1940 - May 15, 2018

ABRAHAM HARRY SAMPSON Sr., "Abe", son of the late James Edward Sampson and Rachel Amelia Sewell was born on June 30, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 15, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

>>

>> He received his education in Baltimore City and served in the USAF from May 1960-64 as a Ballistic Missile Specialist at Beale AFB, California. On January 8, 1966, he married the former Claudette Lee Woodson and out of this union four children were born. His employment included IBM, Johns Hopkins University and retirement after 23 years from Northrup Grumman.

>>

>> Abe shared his love of flying and the outdoors with his family, neighborhood kids and just about anyone. Hang-gliding down the hills of Oregon Ridge or off the dunes of Kitty Hawk, canoeing, gardening, building remote-controlled airplanes, camping, and field trips to the Air and Space Museums were just a few adventures we enjoyed. He was an avid reader, intense debater, hard worker and his intellect was immense. There was always a learning moment with him... always.

>

>> He will forever be remembered by his loving and devoted wife, Claudette, one sister, Geraldine Bowman, his children, Simone Chambers, Sibrina Roberts, Abraham Sampson Jr. and Isaac Sampson Sr., son-in-laws, Martin Roberts and Lalonzo Chambers, 10 grandchildren, his faithful best friend

Rambo and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
