

Ada Belcher

September 6, 1914 - October 21, 2003

Ada Belcher was born to the late Henry and Roxanna Bridgers, on September 6, 1914, in Tarboro, North Carolina. She went home to be with her Lord on October 21, 2003. Ada attended North Carolina Public schools. She was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church. In 1935, she met and married the late Louis Belcher. The couple was blessed with one son, John Clarence, who preceded her in death. They relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Upon moving to Philadelphia, she united with the Wayland Temple Baptist Church, where she faithfully served as the first woman trustee as well as other ministries of the church and community. Ada was an honorable member of The Elks Lodge, where she held the position of Daughter Ruler. The Campbell Soup Company employed her in Camden, New Jersey for several years. The Sawyer Family then employed her. Ada was also blessed to own her own catering business. Ada enjoyed creating beautiful floral arrangements and traveling extensively. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her family, friends and church members. The things that she created reflected her beauty and poise. She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter-in-law, Delores Bridgers; two sisters-in-law, Dorothy M. Bridgers of Baltimore, Maryland and Julia Belcher of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; five nieces, Ruth Bridgers, Dorothy Hilliard, Ada Gaines, Dorothy L. Bridgers of Baltimore, Maryland and Vivian Snead of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania; three nephews, James R. Bridgers of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Carey Bridgers of Baltimore, Maryland, and Louis Belcher of Milwaukee, WI; a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ My condolences to the family of Ada Belcher. Please find comfort in the Bible's promise at John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. In God's new world there is the hope of seeing our dead loved ones come back to life.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
