

Ada Bell Lyles

December 11, 1916 - July 20, 2003

Ada Bell Lyles, daughter of the late Rosa and Arthur Ford, was born on December 11, 1916 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 20, 2003 after a sudden illness. She attended public schools in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She migrated to Hopewell, Virginia in the late 1940's where she became employed as a domestic worker. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where for many years she provided loving child care for several family members. She married the late Thomas Lyles in 1966. Ada, affectionately known as "Nee-Nee", was very well loved. She went out of her way to care dearly for everyone around her. She was always true and devoted. Ada will be missed. She leaves to mourn: her dear sister, Nettie Mae Walker; one niece, Veronica McCoy; four nephews, including very devoted nephew, Bryant Walker, Rama Dyushambee, Douglas Walker and Jeffrey Walker; a host of great-nieces and nephews; special cousins, Lillie Dickens, Gladys (Louise) Johnson, Monique and Tess Williams, Herman L. Williams and Stephen T. Williams; a host of other cousins, relatives, and friends, including special lifelong friends, Dr. Ralph Twining, Dr. Matthews, Mildred Camp, Blossom Lee, Tekeeta Wright and her friend, Ernest.
