“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to a time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Curtis' family and friends. The loss of loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
