

Addie Cox

February 10, 1915 - April 13, 2004

Addie Cox, daughter of the late James and Carrie Tucker Tillery, was born on February 10, 1915 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She departed this life on April 13, 2004 after a lengthy illness. She received her early education in the Public School System of Richmond, Virginia. At a young age, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she attended Dunbar High school. Eventually, Addie met Israel Cox. They were happily married until his death in 1967. Addie is the mother of seven children. Addie was a volunteer with the Baltimore City public school system for fifteen years. She worked with troubled children and their families. She was recognized many times for her outstanding contributions towards the welfare of Baltimore's children. She loved to paint and write poetry. Addie had numerous paintings and poems hung on the walls of her apartment. She liked to dance and listen to music, particularly Mahalia Jackson, B.B. King and Etta James. She was a member of Faith Baptist Church in East Baltimore where she participated in Various activities. Addie truly enjoyed her grandchildren. She looked forward to spending time with them. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister and friend. Her sister-in-law and best friend, Hester Tillery, predeceased her. Addie lived with and was cared for by her son and daughter-in-law, Tyrone and Vicky Cox. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Israel Cox, Jr. and Tyrone Cox of Maryland; five daughters, Delores Parker (deceased), Alice Carr of Maryland, Joyce Lewis of Virginia, Brenda Cox of Texas and Carrie Little of Maryland; three brothers who predeceased her, James, Roland and Raymond Tillery; two sisters, Bernell Richardson (deceased) and Sadie Molock of Baltimore; thirteen grandchildren, many great grandchildren; one son-in-law, two daughters-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Brenda: A mother's love lives forever in the hearts of many. As time passes on, we often reminisce of memories along the way of this life's journey. For there are many lessons to be learned and many roads to follow to the path to God. The biggest lesson of all is that of Love, for the mere word is so misunderstood on this material plane, we call earth. My deepest and sincere sympathy to you and your family for the lost of someone so close and so dear as your mother. Your friend always, Kathryn ##imported-begin##Kathryn##imported-end##

“ Mother is the most utilized and loving word in the world. Everyone on earth can in some way relate. For the immediate family, cherish the love you all had for your Mother, and each day will be a little easier to get through. Anyone that knew Mrs. Cox, knows that her favorite phrase was: "Give me my flowers while I'm alive". These are simple, but very powerful words. For the family, other relatives and friends, I repeat and paraphrase the words of Addie Cox, If you still have a Mother and/or love one, GIVE THEM THEIR FLOWERS WHILE THEY ARE ALIVE. LEARN TO LIVE, LOVE AND MOST OF ALL FORGIVE! GOD BLESS##imported-begin##Angel##imported-end##

“ Remember, the life of God within us is greater than any challenge of mind, body and emotions. The strength of God within us is more powerful than any demands made on our endurance and stamina. The freedom of God is more than enough to ensure our expression of pure, everlasting life. May God bless and comfort you all during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Art Unko##imported-end##

“ To the children of Addie Cox. Your mother was a good person, full of life and boy did she have a pretty smile. I can see her smile without really trying. Continue to be encouraged and remember all her teachings. She wanted only the best for all her children and loved you all. Her grandchildren she loved so very much. She often spoke of Doll, Dobe, Day Day, Vita, Brian, Wade, Troy, Karla, just toname a few. Remmember her, and continue her love and good deads. God Bless###imported-begin##Naomi Johnson###imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
