

Addie Mae Foster

February 2, 1929 - June 19, 2012

ADDIE MAE WILKS FOSTER, was the youngest of seven (7) children of the late Joseph and Addie Wilks. She was born in Charlotte County, Virginia on February 2, 1929. she was united in marriage to the late Howard Claven Foster on September 23, 1944. Out of this union came seven sons and two daughters. Addie Mae adapted to the motherhood role like a champ. She exhibited a tremendous amount of love for her children. She was always there for her children and she constantly instilled in them the importance of what is right, and she lived the example. She lived a good Christian life.

When her children were grown and out their own, Addie Mae took a job at the former Provident Hospital, Inc. While employed by Provident Hospital, she received awards for Perfect Attendance, Punctuality, employee of the month (which represented the employee's choice), an Environmental Service Award and various awards for assisting with fund-raising projects. In 1991, the Dynamite Superstars chose Addie Mae as one of Baltimore's Outstanding Women for her many outstanding services to her family, friends and the community.

In spite of her on-going illnesses, Addie Mae always had a kind word and bright smile. She love sitting in her reclining chair, listening to her gospel music and gracefully and joyously receiving her many visitors. When looking at her, her children are reminded of what David said in Psalms 113, verse 9:

“He gave barren women a home, making her the joyous mother of children.”
They recognized her as a God sent symbol of what a mother should be like and thank God for her.

Addie Mae leaves to cherish her loving memory: two daughters, Mae Barry and Mattie Cunningham; four sons, Drewary, Conuel, Colie and Leonard Foster; two daughters-in-law, Regina Foster and Phyllis Foster; two unofficially adopted children, Juliet Branker and John Pickford; eighteen grandchildren; nineteen great grandchildren and a host of other friends and relatives.
Preceding her in death was her husband, Howard; and three of her sons, Howard, Emanuel and Sam Foster.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
