

Adele Anderson Summons

June 30, 1918 - January 31, 2003

ADELE A. SUMMONS, daughter of the late Robert and Nealie Anderson, was born on June 30, 1918 in Goochland, Virginia. She departed this life on January 31, 2003 in Baltimore, Maryland after a lengthy illness. Adele received her education at Maggie L. Walker High School. She worked tirelessly with the elderly for the Baltimore City Health Department. She joined the Order of the Eastern Star in 1958. She was a member of the Ruth Chapter for several years, then the Hannah Chapter #65 until her death. She was a faithful and loyal member and held several prominent positions over the years. She became an Honorary Member of the Hannah Chapter #65. Adele was also loyal member of the Great Southern Temple #30 I.B.P.O.E. of W. She married Alexander F. Summons on November 8, 1934 in Richmond, Virginia. From this union, she bore three children Lawrence, Carlton, and James. Adele made friends wherever she went. She is well known for her beautiful smile and wonderful personality. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, true friend, sister, and woman. She is the last of the Anderson family siblings. She leaves behind to mourn: three sons, Lawrence L., Carlton L., and James E. Summons; daughter-in-law, Terry Spiegel-Summons and Doretha "Sissie" Davis; grandchildren, Monica A. Bailey, James T., Darren T., Regena A., Therika A., Larry, Andre, Gregory, Dolores, Wanda, Troy and Gary (Michelle Teresa Summons preceded her in death); thirty-one great-grandchildren, thirteen great-great-grandchildren, a host of other nieces, nephews, devoted friends and loving church family.
