

Adele Lacy Johnson

May 9, 1929 - February 19, 2021

Deaconess Adele Lacy Johnson was called home to eternal rest on February 19th, 2021. She was the ninth child out of twelve born to the late John and Minerva Lacy in Ashland, Virginia.

She was educated at Hanover County Training School for Negroes through the 12th grade. She subsequently attended Virginia Union University for two years and took some classes at Virginia State College (now Virginia State University). She also attended J Sargeant Reynolds Community College where she graduated cum laude with a Teacher/Instructional Aide Certificate.

At an early age, she joined Greenwood Baptist church in Ashland, Virginia where she was a Deaconess, an usher, a member of multiple choirs, and on the Women's Auxiliary Board.

She was also a member of the First Baptist Church in Washington Park where she was a choir member, an usher, and taught Vacation Bible School during many summer vacations. She was a prayerful woman who loved to read her Bible and highlight different scriptures. She was a very dedicated servant to both churches.

On November 27, 1948, she married William Irven Johnson. They first resided in historical Jackson Ward section of Richmond, Virginia and then settled in Washington Park for the rest of their days. This union was blessed with three children.

She was employed the Richmond Public School System for over 35 years. She began her career at the former Community Training School on Bainbridge Street. She began as a teacher's aide but was promoted to an instructional assistant when she completed her certification. She then worked with special needs children at Hickory Hill School, Amelia Street School and Thomas H. Henderson Middle School. She was recognized as a Support Employee of the Year for 2001 and 2002 at Henderson Middle School. She truly loved her job and her students.

She was a dedicated member of the Washington Park Civic League before her illness prevented her from participating. She would attend the meetings and discuss Washington Park affairs.

Deaconess Johnson was preceded in death by her husband, William I. Johnson and her daughter, Beverly J. Lambert. She leaves to cherish her memories one son, Demetrius Johnson and one daughter, Lori Johnson Goodman; daughter-in-law, Wanda Johnson; six grandchildren, Marc Lambert, Brittany Goodman (Devoted Granddaughter), Tyler Johnson (Aarika), Vincent Goodman, Casey Johnson, and Ian Goodman; one brother in-law, Robert Johnson; one sister-in-law, Beatrice Johnson; special friends and neighbors, Stanley and Ruby Abrams, Victor and Carolyn Hill, Rosalind Norrell-Nance (Other daughter) and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ We, the members of the Washington Park Civic Association wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and all family. She attended the meetings regularly and was a valued member. Mrs. Johnson served as chaplain until her health prevented her from participating. She always sought to give advice and share input to improve the quality of life in the park. We shall miss her sweet soft voice and quiet charm. May God comfort, keep you and give you peace in your time of loss.

Blessings to all,

“ There are no words to express the deep heartache I feel right now. But to know that she'll be meeting up with the family that has gone before her. But most importantly the place where there is no more pain, sickness or sadness. Until we meet again, know that my love for you will continue here on earth, until that glorious homegoing for us all. I Love You.

“ How can I express the sadness of losing someone who has been such a huge part of my life. I will always remember Aunt Adele for the love, grace and kindness she has always shown me and that I have seen her show to so many others. She is the last Aunt to me and the family that is now gone but will never be forgotten. I extend my sympathies to Lori, Demetrius and Mark, the Johnson family and all the families, relative's and friends of the Lacy kinship. We have lost a truly lovely person this week. Love Wendell.
