

Adele Winerfred Stallings

May 21, 1921 - March 17, 2013

ADELE WINEFRED COLLINS-STALLINGS, second of four daughters of the late Nathan Collins and Emma Gray, was born on May 21, 1921 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a short term of illness she departed this life into the hands of Jesus Christ Our Savior on March 17, 2013.

Adele was educated in Booker T. Washington Junior High and Old Frederick Douglass Senior High Schools. She worked as a domestic. During World War II, Adele worked for Glen L. Martin. She spent numerous years working for American Book Bindery in New York. Adele accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior while being raised in the Baptist Church. She later became a member of Strawbridge United Methodist Church and later years, enjoyed visiting Mount Hope Baptist Church.

In 1939, Adele met and married the love of her life, James F. Stallings Sr. Of this union one son was born, James F. Stallings Jr.

Adele was a loving, devoted wife, mother, grandmother and a friend to many who passed her way. She was fondly known as "Miss Chinky" in Brooklyn, New York.

Her husband, mother, father and three sisters preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son, James Stallings; daughter, Elizabeth Allen; special devoted friend, Charlotte; two grandsons and wives, Maghan and Maryum Stallings, Marcus and Julie Stallings; many great-grands, beginning with Myshawne Stallings, Camry Stallings, Marius Stallings, Tyatian Stallings, James Stallings, Isaiah Stallings and Mariah Stallings; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

“ To the Family and Friends of Adele Winerfred Stallings,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“*Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.
Sincerely,
A Bible Student*

“*I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—
ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!*
