

Adele L. Turner

April 21, 1939 - May 21, 2018

Adele Turner, daughter of the late Magnolia LaPrade was born April 21, 1939 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She departed from this life on May 21, 2018.

At an early age the family moved to Roanoke, Virginia where she attended public school. She then moved to Baltimore City where she finished her education. She volunteered at numerous Baltimore City public schools for over 40 years. She loved working with children; she babysitted numerous amounts of children and even help deliver a few into the world. She attended Brown's Memorial Church where she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. Adele was the life of the party. She loved to dance and enjoyed making friends wherever she went. She made several closed friends throughout her life and she will forever have a lifetime affect on many people.

She married Joseph Turner at a young age and due to life changes she found her soulmate Stanley Willis. She bore five kids and four in which preceded her in death. Stanford Dorsey, Joseph Turner, Andre Turner, and George Turner. She leaves one child left to mourn, Resha Willis-Eggleston.

Adele is survived by two sisters, Christine Jones, Glenda Hall, and one sister that preceded her in death Evine Lyles.

She leaves to cherish fond memories three grandchildren, Aren Kimber-Turner, James A. Jones Jr., Jamie A. Jones, and one great-grandchild, Jamison A. Jones. She leaves two uncles, Howard LaPrade and Roosevelt LaPrade, one son-in-law Michael Eggleston, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and special friends.
