

Adell Whitfield Simpkins

October 10, 1920 - February 28, 2002

Early on Thursday morning, February 28, 2002, God called to rest Adell Simpkins. Adelle was born to the late James McRae and Nannie Moore on October 6, 1920 in Roberson County, North Carolina. She received her early education in the public schools of Roberson County. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was a member of Hilly Branch Baptist Church in Lumberton, North Carolina. Sister Simpkins came to Baltimore to live in 1945, where she was needed and as a member of the usher board until her health began to fail. Sister Simpkins was a very loving person who treated those she met with kindness and respect. She was never too busy or too tired to extend a helping hand to her fellow man. Sister Simpkins had a particular fondness for gardening and flowers. She also enjoyed and found inner peace in reading the Bible. During her last days, when asked how she was doing, she would always remark, "I am doing the best I can and trusting in the Lord." Sister Simpkins always tried to live on the right side of God. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend. Sister Simpkins leaves to cherish her precious memory: her son, Tilman Moore; stepson, Cleveland Whitfield, Jr.; one sister, Delphia Thompson; one aunt, Lula Thompson; one daughter-in-law, Hazel Moore; many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, neighbors and friends.
