

Adell Marie Garnett Harris

June 29, 1935 - October 17, 2009

Adell Marie Garnett Harris departed this life on October 17, 2009, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on June 29, 1935, to the late Meredith M. Garnett and Dora Morris Garnett Payne. She was a twin and the youngest of seven children born of this union. She was educated in the Richmond Public Schools and sang in the Armstrong High School Choir. She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Fourth Baptist Church. She later became a member of St. Paul's Baptist Church. A breast cancer survivor for 26 years, Adell was a living testament to the glory of God. She was a kindhearted and giving person, and was always willing to share whatever she had, and whatever anyone else had as well. She was a true warrior, has fought the fight, and is now victorious in Jesus Christ. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ballard E. Harris, Sr.; her son, Reginald D. Harris; and her grandson, Lloyd H. Brown, Jr. She leaves to cherish her loving memories, three daughters; Charlene H. Mayfield, Rosalind H. Brown and Sandra L. Harris; one son, Ballard E. Harris, Jr.; six grandchildren; Pamela E. Mayfield, LaTonya Brown-Oliver (Dwayne), Kimberly Brown-Gibbs (James), Kenneth L. Brown, Reginald T. Harris and Krystal D. Allen; and nine great-grandchildren. She is survived by one sister, Helen G. Daniels; three sisters-in-law; Helen E. Harris, Rita McLaurin and Diane M. Peoples; three brothers-in-law; Howard L. Carn, Freddie O. McLaurin and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Adell Marie Garnett Harris

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Our thoughts, and prayers are with you Rosalind, Wanda, Bear, and for your family during your bereavement.##imported-begin##Barbara Batson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM