

Adeyinka Bolade Adekoya

February 2, 1973 - February 26, 2022

Adeyinka Bolade Adekoya was born on February 2nd, 1973 in Ibadan, Oyo State, Nigeria and he grew up in Lagos State, Nigeria. Adeyinka spent his early education years at Central Primary School Festac Town, Lagos, Nigeria and Annunciation Boys' High School, Ikere Ekiti, Ekiti State. He attended the University of Lagos, where he graduated with a B.SC in Mathematics. He later proceeded to University of Ife for his MBA. He also had numerous IT trainings and certifications. After graduation he worked at Marina Bank and later Access Bank, Victoria Island Lagos. Adeyinka moved on to work in the IT Department at Arik Air Nigeria, where he later became Manager of the IT Department. Until his untimely demise, he was Associate Vice President, Arik air Nigeria Adeyinka had many professional accomplishments. Adeyinka lived his life, caring for others especially those in need. He would cheerfully give to support others. He was very selfless and peace loving. Adeyinka is survived by wife, children and siblings. He will be sorely missed as he took the role of our mother and father after they passed away; he left a vacuum too large for anyone to fill in our lives. Adieu our dearly cherished brother, husband, father, uncle and cousin we love you very much! Rest on in the bosom of the Lord till we meet again. Adeyinka Bolade Adekoya, please give our regards to mama and papa.
