“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I work at the Wm. Byrd Senior Apartments where Ms. Spurlock lived before her move to the Reflections Community. MANY MANY people here remember her well as a wonderful, sweet-natured woman and were very saddened to hear of her passing. Most of the residents here are not on-line, or I know they would have many pleasant memories of Ms. Spurlock to share. Our condolences to the family but congratulations for having had such a splendid family member.##imported-begin##Pamela Cowley##imported-end##

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I send my warm and heartfelt condolences to you at this difficult time. Please find much comfort in the hope of the resurrection, which shows how Jehovah will bring the dead back to life. Rev 21.4 makes this wonderful promise: And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." And the one seated on the throne says, Look! I am making all things new. No one else has the power to offer us life everlasting, and a peaceful new world. So trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and put faith in the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus, and if you do those things, you will see your loved one again. May you be strengthened and encouraged by the hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
