“ To Andrews/ Harrison family My deepest sympathy is with is with you during your time of sorrow. Our God promises that that he will comfort you during your time of sorrow, and that weeping may endure for the night, but joy will come in the morning. At times like this scriptures can be of great comfort. In the book of John 11:25,26 Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." This is a wonderful hope that the Bible holds out for us, a hope for us to see our loved ones again. Please draw comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Nalicia Goods, FSCWII##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible lovingly informs us: First Corinthians 15:26- "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
