“ To the cousin who reminded me most of our grandfather, Charles Herman Fuller, Sr. Even though we lost touch over the years, I will hold on to the memories I have of you. You were always observant of others, but you also had a big heart. I would hear from time to time how you either loaned or gave money to help others. I also remember having to tell you from time to time...Adrian, I am your cousin, boy! :-) You would smile and be like aight cuz.

Just reminiscing. You will be greatly missed.

“ I will never forget the first time I met you. I was frying chicken in my boxers and you was looking at me like this boy some kinda sweet lmao you had me low key shook cuz you reminded me of chris from off the wire! I thank you for being my uncle and my friend. You never judged me and you set me right when I told you my own blood was judging me. I never had to seek you for anybody or anything, you always would seek me. You saw me through every milestone in my life that my dad could not be there for. You always praised me for never turning to the streets and I used to be so baffled because it was like an accomplishment to you and my dad. My Mama was always "Ma" and I was always lil Andre or lil Urkel. When my mama was laying in her bed dying you was right at her bedside feeding her gummy worms cuz she told you she wanted candy. I don't forget a single thing! Your words and actions touched my soul and for everything I am eternally grateful for the man that I knew, respected, and loved! Oh I thank you unk! I thank you from the bottom of my heart!
