

Adrian K. Smith

June 23, 1987 - May 22, 2007

Adrian “Tank” Kenard Smith was born June 23, 1987, the loving son of Velandia Clay and Dennis Smith Sr. in Baltimore, MD. He departed suddenly on May 22, 2007, during his short life; he touched a lot of hearts. He was educated in the Baltimore City School Systems. He later decided to complete his education by participating in the Career Academy’s GED Program. His favorite past times were basketball, singing rap music, and watching movies. But the thing he enjoyed most of all was spending time with family and friends. He loved life and lived it to the fullest. Adrian accepted Christ at an early age and joined the First Faith Temple Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Al M. Dandridge. He served as a Jr. Deacon, was a member of the choir, and he helped out wherever needed. He later joined the Hosanna Praise and Worship Center, under the leadership of Pastor Margie Mercer. He worked as church security and was also back up drummer. Preceding him in death were two grandmothers, Carrie Smith-Cobb and Margaret Jones, one grandfather Roy Clay, one aunt Vandoria Gee, and one sister Vakendra Smith. Tank leaves to mourn his memory, his biological parents; Velandia Clay and Dennis Smith Sr.; adoptive parents Malcolm and Linnie Smith; four brothers; Robert, Quentin, Dennis and Trenelle; three sisters; Shantel, Denise, and Gena; three nephews; Ashand, Greg III, and Lacel Jr.; three nieces; Tanasya, Tajai, and Shannon. He also, leaves eight aunts, five uncles, one grandmother, Anrair Clay, two grandfathers; Willie Lee Smith and Willie Cobb, great-grandparents; Mr. And Mrs. Walters, a godmother Pastor Margie Mercer, a host of family and friends and he also leaves his best friend Travis Smith.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your young one. At Luke 7:14-16 Jesus raised a woman's son from the dead. That was more than just a good story. It was a preview of what Jesus will do for many in the near future. Jesus himself said at John 5:21-"For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends and family. And may you receive much hope from these loving Bible promises. Also, may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.(James 4:8; John 17:3)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I would like to offer condolence to the family and friends of Adrian Smith. I know that the support of others can help you through times like these. The bible offers us so much help, in that it comforts us better than anyone else. It promises us that we will have a chance to see our dead love ones again. I just wanted to share that encouragement with you.###imported-begin##O.Crosby###imported-end##
