

Adrienne Brown

July 6, 1961 - November 23, 2020

Adrienne Brown was born to the late Carrie Brown and Clyde Brown on July 6, 1961. God sent an angel to escort Adrienne to her final resting place in heaven and she departed this earthly life on Monday, November 23, 2020.

Adrienne received Christ at an early age, developed a strong faith, and enjoyed listening to gospel music. She was baptized at Bibleway Missionary Baptist Church and occasionally visited St. Ann's Catholic Church.

Adrienne attended Baltimore City public schools. She attended and graduated from Robert C. Briscoe High School where she received her high school diploma.

After graduating, Adrienne worked for Baltimore Behavioral Health Center, then Mountain Manor Treatment Center where she was a supervisor assisting individuals for treatment with addictions. She worked both jobs for years. After attending Narcotics Anonymous Association, she became affiliated with the non-profit organization by providing assistance when needed.

Adrienne loved gathering with her family sometimes for food, fun, and playing cards. She was known to be a sharp-dressed woman with good taste. She was very particular and kept her hair and nails well maintained. She occasionally traveled to New York for shopping sprees. Adrienne was known for her facial expressions and expressing how she felt by making humorous statements that would bring you to tears.

Adrienne was preceded in death by her parents, three siblings, brothers, Clyde and Craig, and sister, Sandra.

Adrienne leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Lateecha Ross; grandson, Maison Hudson; siblings, Fedrick, Glenn, Brenda, Samarian, Gregory, Tondlea, Mark, and Terrie; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.
