

Adrienne Deloris Hughes-Ogburn

September 22, 1942 - October 23, 2018

"The Lord knew you were suffering and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your eyelids and whispered peace be thine."

Adrienne Delores Hughes-Ogburn was born on September 22, 1942, to the union of the late Nathaniel and Maria Hughes in Durham, North Carolina. Adrienne graduated from Richmond's Armstrong High School, class of 1962. After graduation, she attended Smith Madden Business College in Richmond. She began her career at the C&P Telephone Company, later Verizon, retiring in the late 1990's.

She accepted Christ at an early age at the Union Baptist Church in Durham, North Carolina. After moving to Richmond with her family, she attended the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church and later Faith Landmark Ministries, where she served as a greeter. She spent most of her time taking care of her dog, Mica, which she adored.

Adrienne is survived by her sister, Jacqueline Miles; two brothers, Ronald and Vincent Hughes; two nieces, Angela Cozart and Terrilyn Hughes; four nephews, Jacques, Jamal and Jason Miles and Timothy Hughes (Teron); cousin, William "Tony" Harden; brother-in-law, Benjamin Miles; eight great-nieces and nephews; other relatives and friends.

“ You will be missed. You always looked forward to seeing us and asking about our daughter. You always had a great big smile, gave great big hugs and had an even bigger heart. I still can't believe it. We're praying for your family and will always think about you.
