

Adrienne Rowlette

March 15, 1956 - April 22, 2018

ADRIENNE ROWLETTE (affectionately known as "Bert" and "AD") was born to the late Randolph and Josephine Rowlette on March 15, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She transitioned to her heavenly home on a PRIL 22, 2018

Adrienne accepted Jesus Christ at a young age while attending St. Phillip's Lutheran Church.

Adrienne was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. She was employed by the Internal Revenue Service for 15 years as a tax advisor and later promoted to tax assessor. Later in life she worked as an administrative assistant for the Baltimore Housing Authority.

On March 5, 1972 Adrienne gave birth to her first son, Damon Terrance Hopkins. In 1968 she fell in love with the guy across the street, Maurice Hart. From this relationship she had a son, Corey Maxwell Hart. Adrienne's family was complete.

Adrienne loved spending time with her family. She lived in California but it couldn't keep her there because she was an East Baltimore Girl at heart. She loved to travel, swim and roller skate. She was a serious movie critic and enjoyed dining out. Adrienne could have been the spokesperson for Haagen Dazs ice cream, which she ate every night. She was a devoted soulmate, loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, cousin and trusted friend to many.

Adrienne was preceded in death by her brothers Jerome, Ronald and Edward Rowlette. Adrienne leaves to cherish her memory; Maurice Hart, the love of her life two sons, Damon T. Hopkins and Corey M. Hart; grandson, Damon Terrance Hopkin Jr; four siblings, Randolph Jr, Francine Mayo, Deborah and Cynthia Rowlette; aunt Dorothy Addison; a host of dear nieces, nephews, cousins and her best friend, Linda Kelly.
