“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie. Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Be assured that soon this sorrow will cease to exist. The Bible tells us that soon, " ... the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29) and that, "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " (Rev 21:3,4) May you find comfort in these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
