

Agnes B. Conway

September 10, 1910 - February 17, 2003

Agnes Cecelia Conway, daughter of the late Martin and Mary Brown, departed from this world on February 17, 2003 from a lengthy illness. A native Baltimorean, Agnes was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools graduating from Frederick Douglass High School. She attended the Community College of Baltimore and was a substitute teacher in the city schools. She married Henry B. Conway and from this union was blessed with five children. Her husband, Henry Sr. and son, Henry Jr. preceded her in death. Agnes loved listening to music, reading, dancing and bowling. She was active in the Daytimes bowling league until she became ill. She will always be remembered at family gatherings for being the last one to leave the dance floor. Agnes was very cheerful and friendly. She was a compassionate person who was always willing to help others. She took great pride in caring for her family. Her love touched the hearts of each and everyone. St. Edward's Catholic Church was a great source of joy and spiritual sustenance for her through all the years. She dearly loved St. Edward's Church and its people. Among the organizations she belonged to were Blessed Mother Solidarity, The Willing Workers and Peter Claver Court #62. She also served as an Eucharistic Minister for many years. She leaves to treasure her memory: two daughters, Rita Ross and Marion Daniels; two sons, Joseph and Frederick Conway; one brother, Martin Brown, one sister-in-law, Edna Conway and Lucille Conway; fourteen grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Agnes B. Conway

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Agnes B. Conway

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the loving family: There are no words that can truly say how very sorry I feel, but I want you to know how deeply I care. God Bless you, Peace and Love, Vashti##imported-begin##Vashti M. Bristol##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM