

Agnes Collins

February 26, 1931 - September 24, 2018

Agnes V. Collins, daughter of the late Clarence and Mary Collins, was born February 26, 1931 in P.A. On September 24, 2018 God saw fit to call Agnes to eternal rest.

Agnes received her education at St. Peters Cleavers and graduated from St. Francis Academy. After becoming employed at Rosewood State hospital in 1958 she continued her education at community college of Baltimore where she received her LPN and retried at Rosewood as a supervisor. She was a dedicated employee and loved taking care of her clients for over fifty years.

Agnes enjoyed donating to multiple charities, gardening and was a member of Zeta senior center (where she was affectionately called Aggie) shopping and spending time with family and friends was one of her favorite things to do.

Agnes was a devoted Catholic at St. Ambrose Church which she attended every Saturday. She also purchased a pew out of her dedication to her faith.

She was the proud matriarch of our family her endless love and spirit will live throughout this entire family .

Her son, Derric L. Thomas and sister, Ruth N. Lee preceded her in death.

Agnes leaves to mourn: her daughter, Joy L. Collins; her two grandchildren, Erika L. Collins, and Donte' E. Collins, who lovingly called her "Grandy"); sister, Joan D. Pinkney; two nieces, Kim and Desiree'; god daughter, Maria; and a host of other family members and close friends.

“ A wonderful sister. A great mother. A caring grandmother A wonderful aunt. A devoted friend. So many hats she wore, and she wore them well. She now wears a Halo. and I know she wear it just as well. God picked it out and placed it over your head. You earned it thur your decatron and faith to Christ Now rest dear sister. We will see each other again.
