

Agnes Ella Webb

November 8, 1928 - December 12, 2009

Agnes Ella Wallace-Webb was born November 8, 1928 to the union of George and Lottie Wallace in Charles City County, where she grew up with her sisters, Elizabeth, Vernell and Clariece, and brothers, John, George, James and Charles Wallace. She attended school there and joined church at an early age. Agnes moved to Newark, New Jersey after her completion of high school and lived there for over fifty years. There she attended a beauty academy and received her license in cosmetology as a licensed beautician. She then retired from Bamburgers/Macys Department store where she worked for over thirty years. Agnes was a faithful member of the Great Abyssinian Baptist Church in Newark, NJ, where she loved the Lord and loved to sing his praises with various choirs within the church. Agnes was preceded in death by her husband, the late Burnette Webb and leaves to cherish her memory; a daughter; Bridgett Webb of Newark, New Jersey, four sisters-in-law, Celeste, Almay, Edna and Arlene Wallace, two devoted cousins, Etta Jones and Estelle Crenshaw of Charles City, Va., a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Agnes Ella Webb

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am saddened to hear of the passing of my dear old friend. We sang together many years in the RPM Choir, Greater Abyssinian Baptist Church in Newark, NJ. Oh the good times we shared! I loved her dearly. Death is only a temporary separation from our loved ones who believe in the saving power of the risen Christ. Praying for your comfort during this difficult time. Most sincerely, Beatrice Braddock Herring, Chesapeake, VA.##imported-begin##Beatrice Herring##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM