

Agnes Gertrude Bond

February 21, 1924 - May 14, 2006

AGNES GERTRUDE BOND, daughter of the late John J. Wilson, Sr. and Annabell Wilson, was born in Darlington, Maryland on February 21, 1924. She departed this life on May 14, 2006 after a short illness at Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, Maryland. She received her education in Harford County at Cedars Elementary School in Cedars, Maryland. Later in life, she met and married Edward Bond; no children were born from this union. She attended St. James U.A.M.E. Church and sang on the choir for many years. Agnes moved to Baltimore in 2001, after her health started failing, to be closer to her sister after she broke her hip. She resided at Bon Vil Assistant Living Facility until she was placed in the hospital. She leaves to mourn: one brother, Earl S. Wilson, Sr.; one sister, Marian W. Davis; one brother-in-law, Belford Davis; four nieces, Barbara Hall, Phyllis Green, Patricia Wilson and Edna Wallace; six nephews, Roger Davis, Nathaniel Harris, Gregory Hall, Jeffrey Green, Glen Wilson and Earl Wilson, Jr.; along with a host of great nieces and nephew, cousins, relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello Bond's ! May you all take comfort in knowing that other care . We all have lost some one death at one time or another. Ms.Bond was a loving person to come take care of her sister when in need.That was self- sacrificing. Our Lord Jesus Christ was the best person to be self-sacrificing in giving his life for the world of mankind. We look forward to the time when no will ever die again or get sick or grow old. The greatest news ever told to us. The bible helps us to get through time like this when our hearts are sadden from the lost of a dear loved one, Isa.33:24, Rev.21:3-4. Many are the promises of our heavenly father to bring about a paaradise for us to live forever, Ps 37:11. I hope these uplifting thoughts have been of some comfort to you all in your time of losing Agnes. I send my condolences. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
