

Agnes M. Long

November 25, 1905 - June 23, 2005

On Thursday, June 23, 2005, our Heavenly Father whispered into the ear of Agnes and said, "Come on Home and get your reward." Agnes M. Long, born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Dock on November 25, 1905 in Winnsboro, South Carolina, was the fourteenth of sixteen children. Agnes married Earl Long in 1922 and they had three children - Earl E. Long, Jr., Mary Agnes Long-Carter and Clyde A. Long, all who preceded her in death. Agnes made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Agnes was always a true friend and a devoted person to her family. She always greeted you with a smile. In the moments that she called her own, she enjoyed spending quality time with family. Agnes loved to travel when she was able. She was a true fan of fashion and hats. Through her witness and encouragement, led by her faith and love of God, she would always give you a scripture to satisfy your soul. Agnes became a member of St. John A. M. E. Church under the Reverend Henri Tomlin. During the more than 60 years that Agnes was a member of St. John, she was a part of several choirs and organizations: the Senior Choir, the Cathedral Choir, Gospel Choir, Stewardess Board #3, Women's Choir, L. M. Tomlin, Pastor's Aide Society, Senior Citizens, and the One More Effort Club. She served under six pastors: Reverend Henri Tomlin, Reverend Harrison Bryant, Reverend Isaac M. Gracy, Reverend Joseph S. Grant, Reverend Benjamin Foust, and Reverend Maurice T. Wilson. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 27, and her favorite hymn was "My Faith Looks Up To Thee." Her favorite memory of all times is the #3

Stewardess Board's Annual Garden Party held in the back yard of the late St. John Member, Florence Bundick. On several occasions Sister Long was honored by St. John for her service in the church. Agnes leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory: devoted daughter-in-law, Margaret; two grandsons, Earl Long and William Long; three granddaughters, Maxine Costello, Brenda Johnson and Madeline Long; and a host of great grandchildren even to great, great, great grandchildren. She lived to see five generations. A host of family and friends enjoyed her fiesty, loving, and caring ways.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Agnes M. Long: Death is such a sorrowful event, but in God's word we find a hope for our dead loved ones. This passage is found at John 5: 28-29, and it states: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Isn't this a comforting thought. In the near future, we may all see our dear loved ones again. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##
