“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 promises sickness, sorrow, pain and death to come to and end. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much solace from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Although it's been several months since your loved one passed away; nevertheless we never forget them, and the pain never completely goes away. Whenever you are feeling overwhelmed, turn to God in prayer; pour out your hearts to him, because he cares for you. 1st Peter 5:7. This pain and grief was never God's purpose for us, and he promises that one day he will end all sickness and death, and violence, and grief. Rev 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. And the one seated on the throne says, "Look! "I am making all things new. So all these problems we face today will be a thing of the past, they will be the former things, and their will be wonderful new things to look forward to. One of those blessings will be the blessing of the resurrection. All who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those tombs. John 5:8,29. What a wonderful prospect. May you find much comfort in Jehovah's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R
