

Akasha A. Jackson

February 17, 1986 - June 29, 2025

Akasha Aaliyah Jackson, 39, was born February 17, 1986. At a young age Akasha was a part of many different activities including the church choir at New Light Baptist Church, teaching praise dance and also directed the choir. He also was apart of theatre company starring in numerous plays.

Akasha graduated from Henrico High School in 2004 where he attended the Center for the Arts. After High School Akasha moved to Houston, Texas pursuing different goals for his life. Over the years he has completed several years of college and was planning to re-enroll one last semester to receive his bachelor's degree. When he moved back to Richmond, VA he joined Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church and became a member of the Young Adult choir.

He loved to sing and put on a show! He was always laughing and smiling no matter how bad he felt. He was definitely the life of the party, a big jokester. And if you really knew Akasha, you knew he loved him some Beyoncé!!

Akasha was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, June 29, 2025. Akasha was preceded in death by his grandmother, Carolyn Moody. He leaves loving memories to his parents, Nicole Moody and Clarence Jackson, Jr., Theresa Boyd and Larry Boyd; grandmother, Lorraine Jackson; 2 sisters, Brandis Boyd and Brittany Moody Brown (Dorell); 2 brothers, Ronald Moody and Darius Moody; 6 nieces, Shaniyah, Sharon, Shaela, Shamari, Jaziyah, and Harmoni; 11 nephews, Da'Vonte', DayJuan, Damere, Darius Jr., DaBriyon, Darell, Dametrius, Daion, JaDarius, Seven, and Dacori; a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins; special friend, Wesley Jackson; his Alexandria family whom he loved dearly, along with numerous life long friends. He truly loved all of yall!
