

Akinwunmi Olukayode Olokesusi

June 1, 1968 - August 13, 2002

Akinwunmi Olukayode Olokesusi, son of Samson and the late Clara Olokesusi was born on June 1, 1968 in Ibadan, Nigeria. He departed this life on August 13, 2002. His secondary education was at Loyola College Ibadan and further received a Bachelors degree in Estate Management from the Obafemi Awolowo University, Ileife, Nigeria. On completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of National Electric Power Authority in Nigeria. He relocated to the United States in January 2001 to begin a new career in Retail Management. He married Rose (whom he fondly called Amaka), and out of this union a child was born, Toyosi. Akin made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who truly knew him. He had a very good sense of humor and always wore a smile on his face. He was always a true friend and ready to offer his assistance anytime he was called upon. He enjoyed watching sports especially soccer and enjoyed reading. Above all, he was deeply committed to his immediate and extended family who will sadly miss him. His wife, Amaka, son, Toyosi, his father, siblings, in-laws, nieces and nephews, and a host of friends survive him. May the soul of our departed one rest in peace, AMEN

“ My Bro...! "Upstairs Susi" as I fondly called you, it still seems like yesterday that you passed on. There are just too many memories that it is impossible to forget you. Can I ever forget when you accompanied me to Akure to see my late mum on her death bed and that night, she took her last breath! And death also took you away in the prime of your life...! Aaah, o death where is thy sting!!

*Rest on my Bro, continue to rest in the bosom of the Lord.
