“ I offer my deep and sincere sympathy for the loss of Al. May your precious memories of happy days spent with Al help to console and strengthen you to carry on. When we think about the subject of death, many people feel that death is the natural end to life, but in actuality there is nothing natural about death. God created us to live forever just as the angels live forever, but because of the rebellion of Adam and Eve is the reason why we die today. Please read Romans 5:12 which tells us the reason why we die. Fortunately, Almighty God does not hold us accountable for the choice they made, and he has made the way out of death for us forever. He sent us his most beloved son to pay that ransom price so that we could be done with death and have an opportunity for everlasting life. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." The dead will soon live again by means of a resurrection, because that is the purpose of our loving father, Jehovah. At John 11:25 Jesus said these powerful words, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev21:4). The Bible teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come by means of a resurrection to a life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
