

Aladrian Jordan Washington

August 18, 1993 - May 2, 2023

Little did we know that day what sorrow that Tuesday would bring. Only God knew that he was going to gain his wings to have eternal life on May 2, 2023. Our heart is deeply saddened by the passing of our loving and caring family member.

Aladrian Jordan Washington affectionately known as “AJ” to many who knew and loved him lived a joyous life. He was born August 18, 1993, in Richmond, Virginia to Daniel Ray Broaddus and Lorrie Yvette Washington. He is preceded in death by his beloved mother and his two grandfathers, Stanley Broaddus and William M. Tompkins.

He received his formal education in the Henrico County Public School System in Henrico, Virginia. He graduated from Varina High School.

“AJ” was employed by Epoxy Systems LLC as a floorer where he worked for the last year. In his leisure, he loved taking care of his dogs, making people laugh, working out, and listening to music. He mostly enjoyed spending time with family and friends. “AJ” was a son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, and friend that was happy, independent, and a natural person.

Today we celebrate “AJ” and thank God for his life. He definitely left a lasting impression everywhere he went. So many people loved and cared for him.

He leaves to cherish precious memories to his caring family: father, Daniel Ray Broaddus; sisters, Danielle Broaddus, Layla Broaddus, Diamond Dawkins; brothers, Akeem Washington, Brandon Braxton, Daniel Robinson; grandmothers, Mattie Elizabeth Broaddus and Bernice Delores Washington; nephews, Isaiah Wilson, Jalen Hundleg, DaMarcus Hundley, DaCari Hundley, Kyrie Robinson, Erion Parham and Channing Baker; devoted cousin, Mercedes Robinson; devoted aunt, Frances Robinson; a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Remember the love that we once shared, miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds...
miss me – but let me go.
