

Alan Hawkins

November 24, 1946 - November 25, 2010

ALAN HAWKINS received a special blessing from our Almighty Father on November 24, 2010, which was his sixty-fourth birthday. A day after he expired. He was born on November 24, 1946 in Washington, D.C. To the late Norma E. Hawkins and Raleigh W. Hawkins, Sr.

He received his education in the D.C. Public School System, earning his G.E.D. He entered the United States Armed Forces (Army) on April 29, 1967 through April 28, 1970 earning and honorable discharge. He was very well known during his walk of life. He was one of the greatest Pool (Billards) players in D.C. He played the piano, guitar and could sing a tune or two. He worked various jobs.

Soumayah says farewell to you Uncle Alan and she adores her new nickname which is Juicy Pig. He is the one who gave me my nick-name "Juicy" at nine months old and now after more than Thirty years he renamed "Juicy Pig. I love you uncle Alan and you will always hold special place in my heart.

He is survived by: three sisters, Sharon, Linda and Pam; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ What can I say about Alan: I am going to remember the handsome, friendly & eccentric boy as a "relative" and contemporary, but I will also remember the adult as a friendly, never forgets who you are- wherever you saw him, eccentric man too. Goodbye Alan, I am glad that I knew you. Love fae

Just wanted to say I wish I had known about Alan so that I could have come to the service. I was close to Alan, and I have to say that he was one of the most playful and pleasant people I had the pleasure of knowing. I will always think of him as part of my family.
