“ *To The Bradley Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. The God of all comfort (1Cor1:3) promises to strengthen us during such difficult times and he encourages us to draw close to him in prayer. 1Pet5:7 entreats us to throw our anxieties on God because he cares for us. “ My brother, sisters, sons and I will miss Mr. Bradley. When my sons and I come from Ohio to visit my mom (Phyllis Simmons) he would be waiting on the bench with fruit and a drink for my little boys. We really missed him last summer and will always miss him.##imported-begin##Judith Murray##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family at this most sorrowful time. May you find much comfort from the hope of the resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Your loved one will one day live again. This is God's promise to all those who love and serve him, and one day he promises that we will see our loved ones again. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
