

Albert E. Johnson

March 21, 1934 - August 29, 2006

ALBERT EUGENE JOHNSON, son of the late Daniel and Annie Johnson, was born on March 21, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 29, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Albert (who was affectionately known as Peppy) was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked for Broadway Services until his health wouldn't allow him. He was loved by many. He loved reading the paper, going to Lexington Market to hear a nice jazz set, and he also loved hanging with his family. Peppy was always a snazzy dresser. Everytime you saw him, he was sharp and the ladies loved him. He was a classy man whose favorite lines that he loved to say were, "Everything is copastetic" or "Naw Jack." He will surely be missed. He had two sisters, Rosetta McGuire and Ida Johnson and one brother, Andrew Johnson who preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Patricia and Rivalee; stepdaughter, Deborah (Bootnie); two sons, Zachary and Gerard; daughter-in-law, Yvette; two sons-in-law, Bobby and James; brother, Herbert; sister-in-law, Teresa; seven granddaughters, Chanell, Lucy, Sonya, Kia, Juaneen, Morgan and Jenelle; grandson, Chris; very special niece, Janice; nephew, Ronnie; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us the wonderful hope of a resurrection to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
